Electronic Access Control

Product Bulletin

12006

The security you need is finally in reach.

SARGENT is pleased to announce the launch of the IN100. The IN100 lock with Aperio™ wireless technology makes access control easy and affordable. As part of the Aperio family of wireless locks, the IN100 offers easy expansion of existing access control systems to bring a new level of control to your facility.

- A cost effective solution for extending access control to medium security doors, allowing facilities to enhance overall security
- Integrated reader, monitoring and short range wireless radio simplifies installation and reduces material costs
- Quick, easy wireless deployment eliminates the cost and inconvenience of complex wireless site surveys
- Real-time door status monitoring with REX, DPS, tamper, and low battery signals enables immediate response to situations at the opening

Lead time is four weeks.
